Refund Policy
Prospective students are required to pay a non-refundable administrative fee when registering for enrolment. In the unlikely event the Institute cancels a Course Intake, learners are entitled to a full refund of any paid tuition fees including the course Enrolment Fee, within five (5) working days from the date of the cancellation. If a learner withdraws from the course more than 4 weeks before the date of course commencement (i.e. the date of the first scheduled lecture or the receipt of any unit of competency provided by the AIAS), any paid tuition fees will be refunded in full. If the learner withdraws less than 4 weeks before course commencement, any paid tuition fees will be refunded in full, less $500.00 (Administration charge). If the learner withdraws once the course has commenced (ie the date of the first scheduled lecture, or if they have enrolled early, the date that they receive their first course module whether (Ayurvedic) 'Specialisation Unit' or 'Common Unit'), requests for withdrawals must be in writing and received within 14 working days of the course commencement. Any paid tuition fees will be refunded in full, less $500.00 (Administration charge). The course Enrollment Fee is fully not refundable. No refunds are available from the 15th day of the course commencement. No refunds will be made where learners are asked to leave because of misconduct or poor attendance or where learners have provided false, inaccurate, or misleading information. All disputes on refunds shall be addressed by application of the Institute's Appeal Policy and Procedures. Any dispute related with study or teaching must be raised within the territory of Queensland. Please ensure that you can commit to the whole course before applying. We do not provide refunds or exchanges if you have changed your mind or made the wrong choice.
